

MOVE OUT COST SCHEDULE

If you do not thoroughly clean all of the items listed on the cleaning guide or leave them damaged or in unsatisfactory working order, the following charges will be deducted from your Security Deposit, or will be owed to us if your Security Deposit is not sufficient to cover the charges. The prices given are averaged prices only. If the Owner incurs a cost for cleaning, replacing or repairing an item other than stated below, you will be responsible for paying that cost. Please note that this is not an all inclusive list; you can be charged for cleaning, repairing or replacing an item not on the list.

If damages to the carpet cannot be repaired, you will be responsible for replacement. In the event that you use scotch tape, double stick tape, hooks, stickers etc. on any of the walls, doors, windows or cabinets, you will be responsible for any cleaning and painting related charges. Please do not put anything down the garbage disposal that may cause damage or clogs, such as grease, metal, bones, rice, potato or carrot peels, etc. This will result in a charge to clear the disposal. In the event that you have not paid late fees and returned check charges as required by your Lease Agreement, they will be deducted from your security deposit at the time of move-out.
